TWO SETS OF REFUGEES
WITHIN BORDERS GREECE

PROMPT AND EFFICIENT RE-LIEF WORK NEEDED.

50,000 Prisoners Disarmed, but at Liberty, One of Curious Incidents.

Rome, Nov. 8. (A. P.)—Col. Ernest P. Bicknell, director-general of the civilian relief department of the American Red Cross, has just returned from a visit to Greece, Macedonia and Serbia, where he went to determine what is to be done by the Red Cross to alleviate conditions among the people in the Balkans. Speaking on latest events and the situation in those countries, he says:

"The region which suffered most is Macedonia, where there is need of prompt and efficient relief work. Since the Bulgarians entered 'hat country, conditions have become very serious.
The Serbian advance was a most prodigious feat. I followed it part of the way, accompanying one French and one Italian division. Officers could not hold in check the Serbian soldiers who dashed ahead, climbing mountains like wild goats."
"For eight days the Serbian troops were entirely cut off from their base of supply. It is mysterious how they fed themselves in that region which was entirely deprived of all foodstuffs.
As far as I can make out, they lived all that time on grass, root, turnips and similar food. I have seen officers fill their pockets with bread which they crumbled up. Occasionally they would eat a few handfuls, thus keeping themselves alive for days."

No Concern for Safety.
"At Badina Pass, the only road north from Monastir, a very interesting situation developed. At that place were gathered Serbians, French, Italians and Greeks, with their Bulgarian prisoners, but no one showed any sign of animosity. Indeed, nobody had time to deal with the 50,000 prisoners taken.
These men were merely deprived of their arms and then allowed their liberty behind the allied lines. They started off toward the south without anybody paying attention to them.
Prisoners swarmed like ants along the roads leading southward, taking as little concern about their safety as they would if they had been among their own people."
"Bulgarian forces in their retreat destroyed bridges and carried off cattle, but respected buildings and private property generally. The only great destruction carried out was the burn-
